

Take the Drama 'Accent Challenge'

In performing arts, we wanted to make sure you are all still improving your performance skills. So, we have created a new Drama challenge with a focus on mastering accents!

As of next week, we invite you to try out a new accent each day. At the end of the accent calendar, we want you to have a go at the monologue and once you are happy you can record yourselves. Entries must be completed and sent to Mrs White on 8th February. We have some great prizes up for grabs! Good Luck!

The Accent Challenge Monologue

Hi, I'm (NAME) and I'm gonna tell ya a little story about my life. I'm from Liverpool but I travel around a lot. When I was younger, I spent some time in... (Scouse)

Yorkshire. It's a wonderful place where people are always asking 'Ey up' and 'ow do?' they're really friendly, not like those (Yorkshire)

Cockney's who don't even look up at ya when ya ask for directions on the tube. I lived in the East End for about a year before I moved to (Cockney)

Northern Ireland but I just went there for the craic really, I was soon flying high on my adventure, first stop... (Northern Ireland)

America! But my mother called me up and said, NAME, you totally need a reality check. But I had to take in a few places before I came home (America)

I flew to Australia, Crikey mate! G'day, how about putting some shrimps on the barby? (Australian)

Germany, where I got lost in the Black Forest (Germany)

Before I flew closer to home, Paris, where I saw the Eiffel Tower (French)

Italy where I cooked some pizza (Italian)

And stopped off for some sangria in Spain. But then my papa called me (Spanish)

Oh, NAME I'm not being funny but, when's you comin' 'ome? He's Welsh my dad is. (Welsh)

I'll be home soon Dad, but I'm visiting family on the way. I need to see Uncle Dave (Scouse)

Alreet pet, what ya up to? (Geordie)

And Cousin Seamus (Scouse)

Eh you, you've all the way to Bonnie Scotland to see your cousin Seamus? (Scottish)

And Nannie Jane (Scouse)

That was an absolutely fantastic visit (Manchester)

And Grandad Peter (Scouse)

Alright NAME, what do ya want for ya tea?

And Aunty Sarah (Scouse)

Shu'up you've been all those places, I'm literally well jel of your travelling babes (Essex)

And while I'm there I might as well pop in on our Liz in Buckingham Palace (Scouse)

The rain in Spain stays mainly on the plain (Queens English)

But then I'll definitely be back. I love travelling but there's no place like Liverpool (Scouse)
